

Dia: Creative Director, Sasha: Designer

Home Alone Site

-multi-page site with a nav bar and some diff menu

OPTIONS of diff page (radio button?) - can mock up both ways see which way like better (diff nav options)

-homepage

-plot

-cast

- soundtrack

- have screenshot of scene song was used in for some of the songs

- reception/recognition

-90s vibe - gritty texture ("vintagy"?)

audience - movie lovers with nostalgia for the 90s

- christmasy; red and green

- look at movie poster - consider yellow poster title and dark blue background

Dia: establish the vibe, look up how to add video for trailer into html

Sasha: look at movie poster and start mocking up both menu options
